[14/2013]

thereafter, serve on the owner or occupier of the premises in question confirmation in writing of the contents of that order and of the time and place at which that order was so given, and must cause a copy of that order or confirmation (as the case requires) to be affixed to those premises in a conspicuous position.

[14/2013]

(5) The Commissioner may, if he or she considers that the danger to which an order given under subsection (1) or (2) relates has been alleviated, rescind that order.

[14/2013]

(6) Any police officer may, if requested by the Commissioner or an authorised officer to do so, assist the Commissioner or authorised officer in the exercise of any power conferred on the Commissioner by this section.

(7) If the Commissioner or an authorised officer considers that a danger in relation to which he or she has exercised the power conferred on him or her by subsection (1) or (2) cannot be, or has not been, alleviated within a period of 72 hours mentioned in subsection (1), he or she must, having given such prior notice of his or her intention to do so to the owner or occupier of the premises in question as is practicable in the circumstances, apply to a Magistrate's Court for an order directing the owner or occupier to close or keep closed (as the case requires) those premises for such period as the Court considers necessary for the alleviation of that danger.

(8) A Magistrate's Court may, on an application made to the Court under subsection (7), grant, subject to such conditions as the Court thinks fit to impose, the order sought by the application.

(9) If an application is made to a Magistrate's Court under subsection (7) while the premises in question are closed under subsection (1) or (2), that closure continues until the application is finally determined or is withdrawn.

[14/2013]

(10) Any person who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with any closing order given by the Commissioner under subsection (1) or (2) or the order made by the Magistrate's Court under subsection (8) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction —

- (a) to a fine not exceeding $100,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both; and
- (b) in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine not exceeding $1,000 for every day or part of a day during which the offence continues after conviction.

[14/2013]

(11) In considering whether it is necessary for the safety of persons for the premises to be closed immediately or whether a danger has been alleviated, in relation to the application of this section to a fire hazard, the Commissioner or the Magistrate's Court (as the case may be) may consider whether —

- (a) that fire hazard is likely to recur in or on the premises; and
- (b) that fire hazard, if it were to recur in or on the premises, would —
  - (i) constitute an immediate or substantial danger of fire in or on the premises; or
  - (ii) be likely, if a fire breaks out in or on the premises, to increase the normal risk to life which occurs in the event of a fire.

Fire hazard order

31.—(1) Where a fire hazard abatement notice is served on any person, and if —

- (a) that person fails to comply with any of the requirements of the notice within the time specified in the notice; or
- (b) the fire hazard, although abated since the service of the notice, is, in the opinion of the Commissioner, likely to recur in or on the same premises, the Commissioner may make a complaint to a Magistrate's Court and the Court hearing the complaint may grant or refuse to grant a fire hazard order.

(2) A fire hazard order mentioned in subsection (1) may be —

- (a) an abatement order, that is to say, an order which requires a person to comply with all or any of the requirements of a fire hazard abatement notice in connection with which the order is made, or otherwise to abate the fire hazard or to do what may be necessary to prevent the recurrence of the fire hazard within the period specified in the order;
- (b) a prohibition order, that is to say, an order which prohibits the use of any premises for such activities as are specified in the order which activities may materially increase the likelihood of fire or danger to life or property resulting from the outbreak of fire in or on the premises;
- (c) a closing order, that is to say, an order authorising the closure of any premises which are likely to be a danger to life or property in the event of fire; or

(d) a combination of such orders.

(3) An abatement order or a prohibition order must, if the person in respect of whom the order is made so requires or if the Magistrate's Court making the order considers it desirable, specify the works to be executed by such person for the purpose of abating, or of preventing the recurrence of, the fire hazard to which the order relates.

(4) A Magistrate's Court, if satisfied that any premises in respect of which a prohibition order or a closing order granted under section 30(8) or this section is in force have been rendered suitable for the use specified in the order, may, on application by the Commissioner or the owner or occupier of the premises, declare that it is so satisfied and revoke the prohibition order or closing order.

(5) Any person in respect of whom a fire hazard order is made who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with the order shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction —

- (a) to a fine not exceeding $10,000 and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine not exceeding $1,000 for every day or part of a day during which the offence continues after conviction; or
- (b) where the offence involves failure to comply with a closing order, to a fine not exceeding $100,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine not exceeding $1,000 for every day or part of a day during which the offence continues after conviction.

[14/2013]

(6) Without prejudice to subsection (5), where a fire hazard order has not been complied with, the Commissioner may abate the fire hazard and may do whatever may be necessary in the execution of the order, and may recover any expenses reasonably incurred thereby from the person against whom the order was made.

[16

Provision as to appeal against order

32.—(1) Where a person appeals to the General Division of the High Court against a fire hazard order, the fire hazard order is suspended pending the determination or abandonment of the appeal.

[14/2013; 40/2019]

with the requirements of the fire hazard order starts to run on the determination or abandonment of the appeal.

[14/2013]

(3) There is no appeal to the General Division of the High Court against a fire hazard order, unless it is or includes a closing order or requires the execution of structural works.

[40/2019]

(4) If the appeal against a fire hazard order is dismissed or is abandoned, then despite subsections (1) and (2), the appellant shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $1,000 for every day or part of a day during the period prior to the dismissal or abandonment of the appeal when the fire hazard order was not complied with.

[14/2013]

(5) A fine under subsection (4) is not payable if the appellant satisfies the court before which proceedings are taken for the imposition of the fine that there was substantial ground for the appeal and that the appeal was not brought merely for the purpose of delay.

[14/2013]

(6) In the event of an appeal against a fire hazard order, no work, except as mentioned in subsection (7), may be done under section 31(6) under the order until after the determination or abandonment of the appeal.

(7) If the court by which the order was made is of the opinion that the nature of the fire hazard is such as to require immediate abatement, the court may, even though the appeal is pending, authorise the Commissioner immediately to abate the hazard.

(8) Despite subsection (7) —

- (a) if the appeal is allowed, the Commissioner must pay to the person against whom the order was made the amount of any damage sustained by the person by reason of the abatement of the hazard by the Commissioner; and
- (b) if the appeal is dismissed or abandoned, the Commissioner may recover from such person the expenses incurred by the Commissioner in abating the hazard in the manner provided for in section 34.

Property and materials seized or removed by Commissioner in abating fire hazard

Commissioner or may, on application by the owner within 2 weeks of such seizure or removal, be returned to the owner on such terms and conditions as the Commissioner thinks fit.

(2) Any property or materials confiscated by the Commissioner under subsection (1) may be sold or disposed of in such manner as the Minister may direct.

(2) An appeal lies to the General Division of the High Court from any decision of a District Court or a Magistrate's Court under this section, and the provisions of the Criminal Procedure Code 2010 apply, with the necessary modifications, to all such appeals.

(3) The person liable to pay any sum under subsection (1) is the owner at the time when the work was completed.

(4) Any occupier who, when requested by or on behalf of the Commissioner to state the name of the owner of the premises, refuses or wilfully omits to disclose or wilfully misstates the same shall, unless the occupier shows cause to the satisfaction of a District Court or a Magistrate's Court for the occupier's refusal or misstatement, be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $1,000.

[22/2019]

Installation of non-compliant fire safety products

71.—(1) Any relevant person who installs, or causes to be installed, in or on the building —

[22/2019]

(3) Any relevant person who installs, or causes to be installed, in or on the building any regulated fire safety product in a manner that adversely affects fire safety in the building, reckless or negligent as to whether the manner in which the regulated fire safety product is installed adversely affects fire safety in the building, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $50,000.

[22/2019]

(4) If a relevant person is guilty of an offence under subsection (2) and —

- (a) a fire occurs in a building in which that non-compliant fire safety product is installed;
- (b) the non-compliant fire safety product does not, during the fire, function or perform in a manner that complies with the applicable standard for the regulated fire safety product; and

[22/2019]

(9) Subsections (1)(a) and (2) do not apply in relation to a relevant person if the regulated fire safety product in question is a non-compliant fire safety product only by reason that the certificate of conformity for the regulated fire safety product expires or is suspended or terminated after the regulated fire safety product is delivered to the relevant person.

[22/2019]

(10) In this section —

“builder” has the meaning given by section 2(1) of the Building Control Act 1989;
